

Equal Opportunity Policy:

Training Programs

Training Unlimited has a policy of promoting fair and equitable access to its training programs. Training Unlimited is committed to the principle of equality of opportunity.

In practice this means Training Unlimited will grant entry to anyone who:

- has applied for and received a place and meets the entry criteria for a particular program,
- and is complying with all other relevant regulation or legislation including but not limited to occupational health and safety requirements and visa conditions