

trainingunlimited.com.au

Understanding Dementia 4 – Activities and Occupation

(2013)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course has been developed to give learners a better understanding of the importance that activities and being occupied have in promoting quality of life for people with dementia. It will assist learners in developing practical ideas on how to keep people with varying levels of dementia active and occupied.

Learning Outcome

Working with people who have dementia is not easy. It can be upsetting, trying and challenging, but it can also be very rewarding and satisfying.

This series is made of up five courses, each providing training in different aspects of dementia care.

- the importance of providing activities for people with dementia and keeping them occupied
- how to provide appropriate kinds of activities
- the importance of being part of care planning and the review process, and
- the value of reminiscence through activity.

Course Features

- Adaptics - Kineo's unique approach to refresher training
- professional audio
- animation and interactivity
- WCAG 2.0 accessibility
- mobile compatibility
- formative assessments, and
- a certificate of completion.

Audience and Duration

This series is aimed at anyone who knows or is responsible for caring for someone with dementia.

Duration: 35 minutes

Training Unlimited | A Recognised Leader in Accredited Training